

BCA statement – 1st February 2023

The Blood Cancer Alliance welcomes the Cancer Improvement Plan for Wales, announced today, which outlines the steps NHS Wales will be taking over the next three years to improve the experience and outcomes of people with cancer. The Blood Cancer Alliance has a seat on the Wales Cancer Alliance, through which we will contribute important patient perspectives to the implementation of the Cancer Improvement Plan for Wales, ensuring people with blood cancer are well represented throughout the process.